Dear Senator McCarthy:

STAT

This is in reference to your referral of 7 September 1955 with which you enclosed a letter addressed to you from [redacted] who is interested in obtaining information as to the qualifications necessary for employment with this Agency.

For security reasons it is difficult for us to furnish applicants with a list of requisite qualifications for obtaining employment with CIA. However, in addition to the general clerical field, we are interested in considering applicants with a fluent knowledge of languages (at the present time, other than those of Western Europe) and who have had backgrounds or intensive study in the fields of international relations, international economics, and the like.

As we are always glad to review the qualifications of those who might be interested in employment here, I am enclosing a set of CIA application forms which your constituent might wish to fill out and return to us for consideration.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely,
